mtheobalt@suffolklaw.com

May Theobalt concentrates her practice in estate planning, probate, and trust administration. She is adept at drafting wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and other estate planning documents, as well as preparing probate court filings for a wide variety of clients and situations. She prides herself on promptly responding to clients and simplifying what is often a complicated and trying process for those planning their estates or navigating probate.

Ms. Theobalt is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and is a member of the New York State and Suffolk County Bar Associations. She graduated from the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University with cum laude and dean's list honors. While in law school, she interned with two general practice law firms on Long Island where she gained experience in multiple practice areas, including litigation, real estate, and commercial disputes.

Ms. Theobalt began her tenure at Twomey Latham while still in law school as a Summer Associate in the Trust and Estates department.

In addition, Ms. Theobalt earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from New York University. She also completed a Master of Science in Marketing Management at the University of Westminster in London, United Kingdom.

In her free time, Ms. Theobalt enjoys exercising, spending time with her family, and exploring Long Island's many beaches and walking trails.
